Cancellation before 06.06.2021 is free of charge.

Corona Hygiene Concept

The academy is planned as a face-to-face event, it is conducted in groups isolated from each other with a maximum of 15 persons. Participants will be accommodated in double rooms separated by groups. Single rooms can be booked for an extra charge of 12€/night, provided they are available. The EJBW works according to a strict hygiene concept. If the Corona rules do not permit a presence meeting, the academy takes place on-line from 9:30 o'clock to 16:00 o'clock. In this case the participation fee remains unaffected.

About the Summer Academy

The EJBW offers in cooperation with the Arbeitskreis deutscher Bildungsstätten (www.adb.de) an academy for beginners in non-formal political education.

Are you interested in educational work with young people? Are you a student of social sciences or humanities? Do you want to get a compact overview of the professional field of extracurricular political youth education? Do you want to know what skills you need, how you can plan your career entry and what is important to work as an education officer, pedagogical staff, head of an educational institution, staff member in an umbrella organization?

Part of the academy are also seminar units that give you a practical insight into political education (racism, colonialism, discrimination) and historical-political education (National Socialism Weimar/ Buchenwald). The academy is held bilingually in German and English.

Goals and contents of the Summer Academy 2021

Orientation: Get to know the professional field of extracurricular political youth education comprehensively - legal framework, structures, actors, goals, contents, methods, target groups, employment opportunities, requirements for young professionals

Establishing contacts with the EJBW, the AdB, other participants

Gaining practical experience: Experience civic education as a participant and try it out for yourself

To deal with exemplary topics of political education, e.g. racism, colonialism, National Socialism

Develop transferable skills, e.g. moderation techniques, rhetoric, seminar planning
