(1) When you contact us by telephone, e-mail, fax or via the Internet, the personal data you have actively transmitted will be stored and processed to the extent necessary for the processing of inquiries or the fulfillment of our contractual obligations.

These data may include: name, first name, title, gender, date of birth, institution / school, department, home address, billing address, e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, health-related data (allergies, intolerances).

For our website, our Facebook account, our YouTube channel and our press work, we may occasionally take photos and/or film recordings of you, which we will use exclusively for company purposes.

The collection and use of personal data of our users regularly takes place only after their consent. An exception applies to cases in which prior consent is not possible for actual reasons and the processing of the data is permitted by law.

Insofar as we obtain the consent of the data subject for processing of personal data, Art. 6 para. (1) lit. a of EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) serves as the legal basis for the processing of personal data.
In the processing of personal data required to fulfill a contract, which the Contracting Party is the data subject, Art. 6 para. (1) lit. b GDPR serves as legal basis. This also applies to processing operations necessary to carry out pre-contractual actions.

Insofar as the processing of personal data is required to fulfill a legal obligation that our company is subject to, Art. 6 para. (1) lit. c GDPR serves as legal basis.

If the processing is necessary to safeguard the legitimate interests of our company or a third person and if the interest, fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject do not prevail over the first interest, Art. 6 para. (1) lit. f GDPR serves as legal basis for processing.

(2) Your registered data is always stored encrypted in our systems. This prevents data misuse. For encryption, we use a recognized and widely used system, which is considered safe in the current version.

(3) The personal data of the data subject shall be deleted or blocked as soon as the purpose of the storage is no longer required. This is the case when the respective conversation with the user is finished. The conversation ends when it can be inferred from the circumstances that the matter in question has been finally clarified. In addition, storage may take place if provided by the European or national legislature in EU regulations, laws or other regulations to which we are subject. A blocking or erasure of the data also then takes place if a storage period prescribed by the mentioned standards expires, unless there is a need for further storage of the data for a contract or fulfillment of the contract.
